

Edge's Annual AMHP Conference 15th December 2017

We are pleased to announce that booking for the 2017 AMHP conference is now open. This one-day conference explores issues relevant to AMHP practice. The focus is on rights v risks and current debates on the need for reform of the MHA. The conference can contribute towards the annual statutory requirement of 18 hours relevant training for AMHPs.

Speakers include:

Keynote Speaker- Professor Wayne Martin- Director- Principal Investigator- Essex Autonomy Project- University of Essex The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities: Challenges and Opportunities.

Dr Susham Gupta- Consultant Psychiatrist in East London Foundation Mental Health Trust & Camilla Parker- Legal and Policy consultant- Just Equality- Joint presentation.

Hari Sewell- Director- HS Consultancy- Honorary Senior Research Fellow at University of Central Lancashire - Associate, Centre for Citizenship and Community.

Simon Foster- Legal consultant and trainer

Dr Bernard Chin & police colleagues from The Fixated Threat Assessment Centre

Christine Hutchison- Director of Edge Training & Consultancy

The conference will close with tea and cake to celebrate Edge's 10th birthday.

Venue: Inner Temple, London Time: 09:45 to 16:15
Cost: £135 + VAT (£162) per person. Price includes conference papers, a certificate, refreshments and a sandwich lunch.

How to book : Download booking forms at www.edgetraining.org.uk/conferences.php

Book online : www.EventBrite.co.uk and search for
EDGE AMHP Conference 2017

Email: assistant@edgetraining.org.uk Tel: 07341 277487